BEVERLY LUSTER ASSUMES DUTIES AS BETHEL QUEEN

Pat Clere, Retiring Job's Daughters Queen, Charges Officers With Duties

In a beautiful, impressive ceremony Miss Beverly Luster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Luster of 1515 Crenshaw boulevard, was installed as honored queen of Bethel 50, International Order of Job's Daughters. Baskets of orchid, white and yellow gladiolus decorated the spacious room, and an ivy trimmed archway with candelabra on each side formed the west line.

The 46th semi-annual rite opened with candlelighting by Miss Marliou Hovlid, and Mr. Frank Thompson, master of ceremonies, gave a short address of welcome. His entrance was followed by the escort of Bethel Guardian Mrs. Edna Babcock and Associate Guardian Mr. William Bremner. The installing officer, Pat Clere, retiring honored queen, was escorted and introduced. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow roses. Assisting her in installation ceremonies were Joy Oursler, guide; Joann Sandstrom, marshal; Naomi Lockman, chaplain; Wilma Jean McBride, recorder; Dorothy Warning, senior custodian; Marlene Ovinggin, junior custodian, all past honored queens of Torrance Bethel No. 50; and Mrs. Juliette Johnson, musician.

Escorted into the Bethel were Carol Ann Lynch and Margie Ann Luster, pages, who were dressed in orchid organdy formal with tiny pink rosebuds on their wrists. They opened the gates of the archway while the Bethel choir and officers entered the room. Little Margie Luster carried the Holy Bible to the altar, followed by Invocation given by Mr. Leonard Babcock. At this time Nadine Nickol sang "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte. Robert Voien, master counselor of the Torrance DeMolay, escorted the

July Bride-elect Is Shower Gift Recipient

Complimenting Miss Barbara Valenzuela, bride-elect of Mr. Vincent G. Lovell, Mrs. Virgil Lundeen entertained at a lovely evening party in her home, 21916

Each elective officer carried an orchid malle fan centered with an orchid.

During presentations Pat Clere presented the Honored queen's pin and received her past honored queen's pin from the new officer. Stevie Luster, cousin of the incoming queen, was jewel bearer. Carol Lynch carried the cape and crown. Both pages are the cousins of the queen officer. The girls presented Pat Clere with a lovely white Bible. Beverly Luster received a beautiful gavel from her parents. Miss Joy Pearman, cousin of the honored queen, was in charge of the guest book. Ushers for the installation were Bob Chambers and Fred Lincoln.

The newly installed queen graciously expressed thanks to everyone, including the Bethel guardians, who are Mrs. Edna Babcock, Mr. William Bremner, Mrs. Mildred Edwards, Mrs. Lois Lougee, Mrs. Charlotte Robinson, Mrs. Rolive Bever, Mrs. Kathleen Ritko, Mrs. Mary McDonald, Mrs. Ethel Bremner, Mrs. Ha Rodgers and Mr. Estill Clere. After closing ceremony, benediction was given.

Spring flowers and purple and white streamers decorated the banquet room, where punch, open face sandwiches and cookies were served. Mrs. Violet Lynch, of Redondo Beach, grandmother of the new queen, served at the punch bowl, assisted by the guardian council and members of the Mother's Club. The rest of the evening was spent in dancing.

Harvard boulevard. The couple will exchange nuptial vows July 1 in Holy Innocents Church, Long Beach.

Following an evening of games, Miss Valenzuela's beautiful miscellaneous gifts were opened and later honoree and guests were served from an attractively appointed buffet table. White and silver accented the bridal shower theme and a three-tiered silver and white iced cake, topped with a diminutive bridal couple figurine, was cut.

Present were 25 Torrance and out-of-town family members and intimate friends of the bride-elect, including her mother, Mrs. Arthur F. Valenzuela, and her sister, Mrs. Pat Newhouse, both of Long Beach; Mrs. John Lovell, mother of the bridegroom-to-be, and his sisters, Mesdames Paul Drury, Marylou Sanders, and Miss Carol Lovell. Others attending were from San Pedro, Compton, Lomita, Harbor City, and Long Beach.
